

The Honorable John C. Coughenour

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, v. KENNETH JOHN RHULE, Defendant.	NO. CR20-105 JCC UNITED STATES' MOTION TO FILE OVER-LENGTH BRIEF Note on Motion Calendar: December 30, 2020
--	---

The United States respectfully submits this Motion seeking leave to file an over-length brief in response to Defendant's Motion to Reopen Detention Hearing (Dkt. 88).

The Defendant's motion included a lengthy analysis of the Internet Protocol ("IP") addresses used to access Kenneth Warren Rhule's Xero account, along with assertions regarding the current COVID-19 infection rates at the Federal Detention Center in SeaTac, Washington. In order to assist the Court in adjudicating this motion, the United States has provided the Court with a comprehensive analysis of the IP addresses used to access this account, which was, necessarily, lengthy and required the inclusion of multiple tables. Additionally, the United States provided the Court with a longer explanation of Rhule's current medical state, along with information on how the Bureau

1 of Prisons is responding to COVID-19 at the Federal Detention Center. Accordingly, the
2 United States has exceeded the 12-page limitation. See CrR12(b)(5).

3 The government hereby requests permission to file a brief in excess of 12 pages,
4 but no more than 17 pages.

5 DATED this 30th day of December, 2020.

6 Respectfully submitted,

8 BRIAN T. MORAN
9 United States Attorney
